This is not how Christmas should be. Santa is not happy, Elves are not happy, Rudolph is demanding and Mrs Claus has her hands full. Christmas is in danger.

There is plenty of room for change with this script. Music can be recorded and classic Christmas songs used. The number of evil and good elf characters can be made smaller by bringing lines together or sharing them out more with more elves.

Classes could take on sections to perform.

- Such as the Twelve Days of Christmas at the beginning.
- Then there is the Work all Day song.
- It was suggested by some students that when Kid is trying to stay awake, a group could sing Silent Night, Making Kid fall asleep.
- Another idea was to have Kid fall asleep and then the audience see them dreaming of a big parade.
- Elf police search the audience, or call up audience members to interview them while searching for the nose.
